Welcome to Kol Nidre Service
Yom Kippur

We welcome you to our service in hopes that you will receive the blessing of our Heavenly Father. This siddur is provided so that we might all fully join in a community of worship. The worship leader will lead our service; you are invited to join in at the bolded type face.

Scripture Reading
Leviticus 23:26-32

Shema

Hear O Israel
(please stand)

She-ma Yis-ra-el, A-do-nai Eh-lo-hey-nu, A-do-nai Ec-had.
YESHUA, Ha-Ma-she-ahk, Hoo A-do-nai.

Hear O Israel, the LORD is our God, the LORD is One.
Blessed be His Name whose glorious Kingdom is forever and ever.
YESHUA, the Messiah, He is LORD.
Blowing the Last Shofar

For untold generations, on this day, our ancestors have listened to the sounding of the shofar. What did they hear in the piercing tones of the trumpet? What solemn truths did they detect that we are to hear and understand? What is it that should so profoundly move us?

What does the shofar say to us today, as we stand at the dawn of another year? What do we hear by our faith in Yeshua, the Light of the world?

TEKIAH! AWAKE! Let not habit dull your minds, nor comfort harden your hearts. Examine your deeds, look well into your soul, mend your ways, and turn to the LORD and His salvation by the atonement of Yeshua.

As we hear the sharp TEKIAH blast, let us rouse ourselves from smugness and self-righteousness, from callousness and self-serving.

SHEVARIM! THE WAIL AND CRY! Hear the echoes of sighing and weeping. Hear the deprived and the distressed, the neglected and the enslaved, the oppressed and the down-trodden. Hear the cry for relief and release from their torment and bondage.

As we hear the anguished wail of Shevarim, let us open our ears to the cries of the afflicted and oppressed. Let our hearts respond with kindness and compassion, even as Yeshua has responded to our cries of confession and repentance.

TERUAH! THE CALL TO BATTLE! Join the struggle against evil and the wiles of HaSatan. Give bread to those who hunger; give strength to those who are weak; give of your life to those who are lonely and forsaken; heal the wounded, comfort the bereaved, even as Yeshua has given of Himself for us.

Let us hearken to the Teruah as a call to action. For in our hands, in our hearts, and in our minds we can work for the kingdom of God. We can have a part in bringing peace and justice, we can prepare ourselves to have a part in His kingdom to come with liberation and freedom. We can welcome the very presence of our King and His righteousness.
All personal vows we are forced to make against You, O LORD, all oaths and pledges we are forced to make between this Yom Kippur and the next Yom Kippur, we publicly renounce. Let them all be relinquished and abandoned, null and void, neither firm nor established. Let our vows, pledges, and oaths be considered neither vows, nor pledges, nor oaths.

In times of distress and persecution, our people have prayed a prayer that God might forgive those oaths and pledges that would be made under duress during the coming year.

We in Yeshua have been taught to let our Yes be Yes and our No be No. His power is in us, as the Scriptures teach us; there is no test given us that we cannot face victoriously. We will find the grace given us by Yeshua is sufficient that we may endure all difficulties and overcome them.

So we pray: May we know the power in Yeshua that we will not deny our God and His Messiah, that we may be truthful and fulfill all the words of our mouths.

May we speak truthfully, not rashly. May we even be true to the confession of our faith, from this Yom Kippur to the next and all the days of our lives. In Yeshua’s name, Amen.
Penitential Psalm:
Psalm 130 - Out of the Depths

Out of the depths I call to You, O LORD. Hear my cry, O LORD; be attentive to my plea.

If you kept account of all sins, O LORD, who could survive?

But with You there is forgiveness; therefore we revere You. I wait for the LORD with all my being. With hope I await His word.

My soul yearns for the LORD more anxiously than watchmen yearn for the dawn.

O Israel, put your hope in the LORD, for the LORD is abundantly kind.

Great is His power to redeem; may He redeem His people from all their iniquities. [Amen]

Psalm 8 - The Lord’s Glory and Man’s Dignity

O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is Your name throughout the earth. You have covered the heavens with Your splendor!

From the mouths of infants and sucklings You have founded strength on account of Your foes, to put an end to enemy and avenger.

When I behold Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, the moon and the stars that You set in place, what is man that You have made less than divine, and adorned him with glory and majesty?

You have made him master over Your handiwork, laying the world at his feet, sheep and oxen, all of them, and the wild beasts, too, the birds of the heavens, the fish of the sea, whatever travels the paths of the seas.

O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is Your name throughout the earth! [Amen]
Kaddish
(Those who have lost a loved one in the last year, please stand; all others remain seated)

Magnified and hallowed be the great name of God throughout the world which He created according to His will. May He establish His kingdom during your lifetime and during the lifetime of all the house of Israel, speedily and very soon. And let all say, Amen.

Amen!

May His great name be blessed forever and ever.

Blessed, praised, glorified, exalted, extolled and honored, magnified and lauded be the name of the Holy One, blessed be He, whose glory transcends — yes — and is beyond all blessings and hymns, praises and songs which are uttered in the world. And say, Amen.

Amen!
(Those standing may be seated)

B’yado, af’keed ruchiy, b’yet iyshan, v’ah-erah.
V’im ruchiy, g’viyatiy, Adonai li, v’lo irah.

ALL:
Lord of the World, King Supreme,
before all creation came to be,
when by His will all things were wrought,
the name of our King was first made known.

And when this age shall cease to be,
He still shall reign in majesty.
He was, He is, and He will be, all glorious eternally.

Incomparable, the LORD is One,
no other can His nature share.
Without beginning, without end,
unto Him, all strength and majesty.

He is my living God who saves,
my rock when grief or sorrows fall,
my banner and my refuge strong,
my cup of life whenever I call.

And in His hand I place my soul,
Both when I sleep and when I wake
And with my soul and body too;
God is with me, there is no fear.

Leader:
Ye-va-re-cha A-do-nai Ve-yeesh-me-re-cha,
Ya-er A-do-nai, Pa-nav Eh-ley-cha Vee-choo-ne-cha,
B’shem Yeshua Ha-Mashiach Sar ha Shalom, Shalom.

May the LORD bless you and keep you,
The LORD make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you,
The LORD lift up His countenance toward you and give you peace.
In the Name of Yeshua the Messiah, the Prince of Peace, Shalom.
